

PRIVACY POLICY

Ward Van Lines S.A., company specialized in national and international moving, storage, packing and office moves, in compliance with the provisions of the Law 19.628 of the year 1999, its later amendment in the Law 20.575 of the year 2012, and in accordance with the standard FAIM 3.1, is committed to ensure that personal data of its clients, employees, and providers are adequately protected. Senior management establishes the necessary guidelines to ensure its security and avoid any alteration, loss, treatment or unauthorized access.

All individuals that provide personal information to Ward Van Lines S.A., for the development of different contractual, commercial, business activities among others, whether permanent or occasional in nature, may know of, update and rectify their information or personal data. This information must be true, complete, accurate, up to date, understandable and verifiable.

In order to ensure the protection of information or personal data, Ward Van Lines S.A. requires the authorization of their clients, employees and providers for the for managing of such.

In this manner, Ward Van Lines S.A., manifests that ensures the privacy of information, intimacy, good reputation and autonomy in the treatment of personal data. Consequentially, all of its actions shall be governed by the principles of legality, purpose, freedom, true, quality, transparency, access and restricted circulation, security and confidentiality.

This policy is communicated and released to all clients, employees and providers of the company.

Sebastian Laporta V.
Managing Director

GLOBAL RELOCATION SOLUTIONS

